

WORKSHOP ENCOURAGED CREATIVE MUSIC-MAKING

Matthew Vanover's workshop entitled "Organ for Pianists, Piano for Organists" was attended by around a dozen people on Monday evening February 25. The workshop was hosted by Carol Grimm and St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Matthew shared useful, accessible organ and piano literature for use in church services, and shared some creative techniques that he uses when leading hymns on the organ or on the piano. He shared some of his own insights about how to connect with people in the pews through music and through personal interactions among church musicians, members of the congregation and church staff. Thank you Matthew!
